

Name: Sylvanah Karimi Mwabu

Designation: Tutorial Fellow

Department: Development Studies & Social Work

Email: smwabu@tuc.ac.ke

Educational Back ground

2016-Date: Ph.D ongoing (Sociology) Moi University

2011-2012: M.A (Rural Sociology & Community Development) University of Nairobi

2004-2007: B.A (Sociology) University of Nairobi

1998-2001: Kabare Girls High School, Kenya certificate of Secondary Education

1992-1997: St. Michaels Girls Boarding Primary School, Kenya Certificate of primary education

Work Experience

2019-Date: Tutorial Fellow, Department of Development Studies & Social work.

Jan 2016-Aug 2018: Part-Time Lecturer, Kenyatta University

Sept 2014-Sept 2018: Part time Lecturer, South Eastern Kenya University.

Sept 2016-Dec 2018: Part-time Lecturer, Moi University

May 2013-Aug 2015: Part-Time Lecturer, Maasai Mara University

Research Projects & Publications

June 2021: Presented a Conference paper on Economic and social effect of Covid-19 on Kenyan women and Girls.

Jan 2021: Effect of Mobile Phone Technology on Kenyan Rural incomes.

Jan 2022: Integrating Indigenous Knowledge in sustainable food production; A case of maize farmers in cherangany sub-county, Trans-Nzoia County

June 2013: Rapporteur for African Women Studies Centre for the University of Nairobi on a study on “National Food Baseline Survey in Kenya”. I worked in collecting qualitative data through key informant interviews and Focus Group Discussions.

2012 April: Research Assistant on a study entitled “Capacity building and advocacy for small and medium women owned enterprises in Kenya” I co-coordinated the data collection exercise

May-June 2007: Research Assistant: Institute of Policy Analysis and Research (IPAR) on ‘The extent and impact of HIV/AIDS on the teaching force in Kenya’.