

Beatrice Kemunto Charity Obwoye
P.O BOX 69 - 30500, Lodwar, Kenya
Mobile Number: +254725243770
Email: bmbori@tuc.ac.ke

Turkana University College

Ms. Beatrice Kemunto Charity Obwoye PhD...LLL (UNISA), M.A (UNISA) B.Ed Arts (MMUST) is an Award Winner of the Best Linguist in African Language Association of Southern Africa (ALASA) 2016. She is a member and Ambassador of Language Association of East Africa (LAEA) and a Member of Creative Writers Association of Kenya (CWAK). I participated in developing Localized Curriculum for health for Nakuru Municipality funded by ALFRA and Hameelinnan City (2011) Agricultural Engineering in Kenya's Urban Schools: A Case of Storeyed Gardens in Nakuru Municipality funded by NACOSTI-Kenya (2010-2012). I teach Language, Linguistics and Communication skills in Turkana University College.

Major Publications

- 2021 Language and Power Relations in Gendered Discourse within EkeGusii: Implications on Pedagogy in the Kenyan Context. Research Journal in African Languages Vol. 2 No.1
- 2019 Linguistic Dominance Exhibited by Ekerogoro over Ekemaate Dialect of EkeGusii of Western Kenya. Core Train
- 2015 Language Attitudes that Promote and Demote Peaceful Coexistence among Religious Groups in Kenya. Journal for Education and Social Sciences of Masinde Muliro University of Science and Technology.
- 2014 A Lexico-Semantic Analysis of EkeGusii Circumcision Social Varieties. UNISA

Research Interests

My Research interests centre around linguistics with specific interest in Communication, Sociolinguistics, Semantics, Morphology, and Phonetics and Phonology as well as Special Needs in Education.